

Dr. Ayesha Altheeb, is Consultant and Head of public health programs and studies section in public health protection department. She holds a Ph.D. in Public Health, from the Arab Board of specializations. She has also completed her M.Sc. in Quality and Assurance in health care management from RCSI. She has a lot of experience in public health and has served as the main lead in many public health projects such as Dubai Mental health strategy and School health policies. She has many research articles to her credit. Her pioneering work includes working during the COVID pandemic in the Labour Command Center in Dubai.