

Dr. Hend Ahmed Alawadhi completed her Masters in Public Policy from Mohammed Bin Rashid School of Government, Dubai and currently serves as the Head of Health Promotion and Education Section in Public Health Protection Department, Dubai Health Authority. She has led multiple campaigns being a part of DHA, the most noteworthy of them being the official speaker for all awareness regarding Monkeypox, leading the COVID-19 campaign, both, around generating awareness around COVID and its vaccination. She is an ardent public speaker and regularly features in COVID related news campaigns in TV, radio, and other media.

She also actively participates in educating the community about methods to prevent diseases and enable the community to follow healthier lifestyles. She is directly responsible for the IEC material around development of training programs for health education and promotion workers.